The Last Gun

Before the Surrender of the Oil Producers' Ship.

A Hot Shot Fired at the Influence of Corporations with the Legislative, Executive and Judicial Departments.

The recent sessions of the Grand Council of the Oil Producers' Union were occasions of very warm debate, but the annexed official copy of resolutions adopted gives the essence of all that was said.

Resolved, That the several suits and prosecutions instituted by the legal committee of the general council have failed to secure to us an adjudication by the courts of the correctness of our position, and that this result is due to the failure of the state administration of Pennsylvania to fulfill its promises of support; to the dangerous influence of corporations with the legislative, executive and judicial departments of the government, and to the delay brought about by the direct interposition of the state authorities by which the patience and means of the oil producers were exhausted and their effort rendered nugatory. We declare that by the inefficiency and weakness of the secretary of internal affairs in the year 1878; by the interposition on more than one occasion of the attorney general in 1879, by which the taking of testimony was prevented; by the failure of the present governor for many months to either grant or deny the requisition for criminals, indicted for crimes within the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, fugitives from justice to other states; and by the interference of the courts of the present governor by an extraordinary and (according to the best judgment of the land) unlawful action, by which the trial of an indictment for a misdemeanor pending in a local court was delayed and prevented; the alarming influence of the present administration of the state was demonstrated. While we accept the inevitable results forced upon us by these influences, we aver that the contest is not over and our object not attained; but will continue to advocate and maintain the subordination of all corporations to the laws, the constitution and the will of the people, however and whenever expressed; that the system of freight discrimination by common carriers is unjustly wrong in principle, and tends to the fostering of dangerous usurpation, and that it is the duty of the government, by legislative, judicial and executive action, to protect the people from this growing and dangerous power.

Resolved, That the General Council of the Producers' Union approves of the action of the president in withdrawing the suit against the Standard combinations and the Pennsylvania railroad company as wise and judicious, and compelled under the existing conditions of the litigation. While we do not approve of the reservation in the contract presented of the right to make any discriminations in rates of freight, we tender to our president our thanks for the energy, fidelity and ability with which he conducted the several legal proceedings. (Signed) Charles P. Hatch, chairman; J. Brown, J. H. Caldwell, G. H. Graham and Wesley Chambers, committee.

A Cross Baby.

Nothing is so conducive to a man's remaining a bachelor as stopping for one night at the house of a married woman and being kept awake for five or six hours by the crying of a cross baby. All crosses and crying babies need only Hop Bitters to make them well and healthy. Young men remember this—Ed.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Oct. 20, 1879. H. H. WALKER & CO., ROCHESTER, N. Y.—GENTLEMEN: A lady of my acquaintance, of an age, in failing health for over a year, has been using Warner's Safe Bitters for the benefit she has derived therefrom, and says that until she used it her stomach could not be regulated for over three years. I believe it to be a certain specific for dyspepsia. H. H. WALKER.

PRINTING & BINDING

REYNOLDS'S METALLIC STATIONERY AND BOOK BINDER.

THE ONLY DEVICE GIVING ENTIRE SATISFACTION. We are now prepared to furnish Check Books, Letter Heads, Note Heads, Statements, Bill Heads, all sizes, Notes of all kinds, Contract Books, Receipt Books, Order Books, and, in fact any kind of work in which binding is necessary printed on the very best paper at the lowest figures.

This invention, for the use of which we have obtained the sole right in Lancaster city and county, enables us to bind the above named or any other kind of blank and memoranda books at the cost of printing alone, and in a style that for neatness and durability is not equalled by any other device of a similar character. During the time that Reynolds's Metallic Stationery and Book Binder has been before the public it has acquired a high reputation among printers and others who have had occasion to make use of it, for the extreme simplicity of its construction and the ease and accuracy of its operation, while business men and others whose experience enables them to speak whereof they know pronounce its work to be superior in the essential points of cheapness, convenience and durability to that of the old process, and we are willing to give our patrons a guarantee in the perfectly satisfactory character of its work.

Specimens of Binding may be seen at the Intelligencer office, and all persons desiring a neat and substantial piece of work in this line are invited to call and inspect the numerous advantages we have to offer, and which enable us to turn out Good and Durable Work at prices lower than any other printing establishment in the city.
